This is the hey-day for milliners, as the most conservative women must have a hat by the middle of May. For the past ten days our buyer has been in the market, and every effort has been made to secure the latest styles and ideas of this and foreign markets, and it is with pride that we now invite you to inspect our Millinery Parlors. Our show-room is filled with an apparently infinite variety of TRIMMED HATS, BONNETS, and TOQUES. These include the work of our own modistes, and the later ideas as developed in Paris are also here represented.

All the novelties in PLAIN and FANCY LACE BRAIDS are shown, as well as LEGHORNS, FRENCH CHIPS, and SAILORS' OR YACHTING HATS.

The above are shown in large variety of shapes, adapted both for misses and ladies. In the separate departments,

Flowers, Ribbons, Velvets, and Laces, the display is tempting and will, no doubt, readily attract purchasers.
